

WILLIMANTIC

Norwich Bulletin, Willimantic Office, 23 Church St. Telephone 105.

The final chapter of the Red roundup in this city came to a close Thursday afternoon when eleven Reds from Norwich and two from Willimantic were put on board the Hartford train to be taken to that city where they will be tried before a federal commissioner. The eleven Reds from Norwich, among whom three were taken at Willimantic earlier in the week, were brought to this city Thursday afternoon in a special freight car. Upon arriving in Willimantic they were marched to the N. Y. N. H. & H. railroad station to await arrival of the train which was to carry them from this city, but later were put into an empty coach that was standing on the tracks. The two Reds who were held at the local police station Wednesday night were also taken to the station. The march of the eleven handcuffed men up Main street Thursday afternoon attracted considerable attention and those residents of the city who wanted to see if the Reds caught in the recent raids were really like those much bewitched cartoon characters had seen in cartoon, caused the officers in charge of the prisoners more than a little trouble. It was evident by the statements heard from some of those who had seen the prisoners, that the men were an entirely different type from that which they had expected to see.

Besides her brother with whom she made her home she is survived by another brother, Edwin I. Robinson of East Hartford, three sisters, Mary E. Robinson of Middletown, Mrs. Nellie R. Little of Hartford and Mrs. Louis W. Cooley of Wethersfield. She was a member of the Lebanon Congregational church.

G.Mrs. Grace Pinney Baker, 47, died Wednesday morning at her home in Springfield. She was born in Stamford, Conn., but for the past 20 years had been a resident of Springfield. She is survived by her husband, her mother, Mrs. Mary Pinney of Willimantic.

To Relieve Catarrh, Catarrhal Deafness And Head Noises

Persons suffering from catarrh of the ears, or who are growing hard of hearing and have head noises, will be glad to know that this distressing affliction can usually be successfully treated at home by an internal medicine that in many instances has effected complete relief after other treatments have failed. Sufferers should be made aware that this medicine is not a secret, but is a well known remedy, and that it is not a cure, but a relief. It is a relief because it relieves the suffering and restores the hearing. It is a cure because it cures the catarrh and prevents its return. It is a well known remedy because it is a well known fact that it is a well known remedy. It is a relief because it relieves the suffering and restores the hearing. It is a cure because it cures the catarrh and prevents its return. It is a well known remedy because it is a well known fact that it is a well known remedy.

While making his rounds lighting the lights that are placed on the silent policemen each night, Dennis Cunningham discovered that the cap at the corner of Valley and Jackson streets had been killed, but had been so cleverly patched up that the real damage was not learned until it was found that the cap would not stand when the lantern was attached. The remains were carried to the police station where they will be put to rest again. Now the police are after the man who got away so easily after breaking up city property.

The meeting of the Girl Scouts was held at the Congregational church on Thursday evening with a large attendance. Questions in scout work were asked, and patrol meetings were held.

Thursday night saw the opening of the three night carnival that is to be run in this city under the auspices of the Ladies' Catholic Benevolent Association. The hall at which the carnival is being held was crowded during the evening and the various attractions were popular with all. Dancing was enjoyed during the evening and this part of the programme will be a feature on each of the remaining two nights of the carnival. The members of the association had decorated the hall and with the customary spirit have done everything to make the affair a success.

Tonight (Friday) the Emeralds of this city will line up against the fast Brooklyn A. C. team of Waterbury. It is claimed by those who have seen them in action that they are even speedier than the Pastimes who recently played in this city and lost out by a narrow margin, and then handed the Emeralds the only defeat of the season in a return game played at Waterbury. The manager of the Waterbury five has sent the following list of names of the players they will use: Carroll, Dumstorf, McNamara, Millman and the Friedman brothers. These men are all new to the fans of this section but sport dope from the city from which they come tends to show that they are all fast men in handling the round leather ball. The Friedman brothers have played together for some time and it is stated that they have just a few tricks up their sleeves that they will show the fans. Sport dope handed out earlier in the week was to the effect that the Emeralds were to play a game on Thursday night with the Middletown five. The management of the Emeralds state that they intended to bring this team to this city but arrangements could not be completed and the Middletown team will be slated at some future date.

THIS MEDICINE RECOMMENDED BY A DOCTOR
When a doctor uses a medicine himself besides prescribing it to his patients, he must know that it has merit.

This is what Dr. J. H. Wagner, a prominent physician of Skates, Kentucky, has to say about Dr. Hartman's well-known remedy, PE-RU-NA: "I have used PE-RU-NA myself for catarrh and have given it to others for catarrh, bloating after eating and other ailments. It has proved a success in all cases with old and young men and women. All speak well of PE-RU-NA. It is the best of all tonics."

Dr. Wagner, out of the fullness of his own personal experience, for the good of all sick and suffering, recommends a medicine which he knows to be good. You may be sure a doctor would not endanger his professional reputation by endorsing PE-RU-NA unless satisfied beyond a doubt of its value.

Whether your trouble be a cough or a cold, or a more subtle catarrhal infection of the stomach, bowels or other organs, give PE-RU-NA a trial. The immediate improvement which you will see will satisfy beyond a doubt that PE-RU-NA is what you need.

PE-RU-NA may be purchased anywhere in tablet or liquid form.

The Miracle Man at the Davis Next Week.

A superb, dramatic Paramount-Artcraft feature, The Miracle Man, which will be on view at the Davis theatre next Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday is declared to be one of the really great screen-dramas of recent years. It was written by Frank E. Packard and produced as a stage play by George M. Cohan and packed the Broadway theatre in the season of 1916-17, where it played for many months. The screen version is said to be even more absorbing and thrilling in its development of the striking story, which shows the marvelous transformation under the benignant influence of an ennobling environment of four of the most notorious crooks of New York's underworld.

Hearing of the healing powers of this old man of the hills, Tom Burke and his band determine to capture them to enrich themselves. Little did they reckon that in their new field of operations they were destined to undergo a magical transformation, and this forms the basis of one of the most thrilling stories ever screened.

A cast of unusual strength portrays the exacting roles in the picture. Tom Meighan, well known as one of the foremost leading men on the screen, has the chief part. Others are Ethelwyn Fair, Betty Compson, Lon Chaney, J. M. Tumont, W. Lawton But, F. A. Turner, Lucille Hutton and Joseph S. Dowling.

A brand new two-reel comedy will complete the show. Matinee at 2:15, all seats 25c; evenings at 6:45 and 8:45—2c, 5c and 10c. Theatricals and tax. Orders accepted now for 50c seats. Phone 1020.

Davis Theatre.

The lovers of good feature pictures of this city have a great treat in store for them with the coming of Jack Pickford's latest picture, Burglar By Proxy, at the Davis theatre today and Saturday.

Pickford plays the role of Jack Robins, member of a fashionable society family who is attacked by the well known society ailments, spring fever, love, a flat tire on his high-powered roadster and a terrible toothache at the same time.

Jack's excitement starts when he is met by two footpads who insist that he climb into the home of his sweetheart and return with plunder for them.

Dorothy Mason, whom Jack wants to marry, is given the shock of her life when she is kidnapped and taken into her boudoir. She surprises Jack with the information that this is not his first attempt at burglary because he stole her father's business plans. This gives Jack a great shock. He determines to recover the plans even if he has to steal them.

That's where all the fun starts. The other feature is A Girl in Bohemia, a delightful story of New York's Greenwich village life taken from the big New York stage super-International News and a funny Mutt and Jeff cartoon comedy completes the show.

Broad Theatre.

The Sins of the Children, which is to be the star attraction at the Broad today and Saturday is among the most important screen productions of the year. It is a story built upon the indiscretions of the younger generation who are allowed to face life in their own manner, unguided by the hands of their parents. It is from the pen of the distinguished author, Cosmo Hamilton, and was produced upon a lavish scale. Many of the scenes deal with high life under the glare of the Great White Way, Temples of Polly, oriental dance palaces and the gayety of the side lights of Broadway are presented in all their original brilliancy and gardenias.

One of the sensational departures of this remarkable picture is the rendition of a dance called The Passions of the Four Seasons. This scene takes place in the Khedive Palace and is performed by Mlle. Halabar, the famous Parisian dance queen.

Olive Thomas with an exceptional fine supporting cast headed by Matt Moore, will also be seen in The Glorious Lady. This is a highly emotional dramatic picture with beautiful Olive Thomas in the most charming role of her career.

The Pathe News will complete the bill.
